Significant processes, causing men to perceive the folly of destructive warfare and the wisdom of peaceable cooperation, have been at work not only among nations, but on the domestic scene, and these processes hold our national destiny. Mr. Coolidge believes.

"The working out of these problems of regulation, government, economy, the elimination of waste,

"America must either perform her full share in the accomplishment of this great world destiny or fail. For almost three centuries, we have

"We have grown exceedingly great in population and in riches. This power and this prosperity we can continue for ourselves if we will but proceed with moderation. If our people will but use those resources which have been intrusted to them, whether of command over large numbers of men or of capital."

Reduced to Law.
"All of these efforts represent the processes of reducing our domestic and foreign relations to a system of law. They consist of a determination of clear and definite rules of action. It is a civilizing and humanizing method, adopted by means of conference, discussion, deliberation, and determination.

"If it is to have any continuing success, or any permanent value, it will be because it has not been brought about by one will compelling another by force, but has resulted from men reasoning together.

"It has sought to remove compulsion from the business life of the country and from our relationship with other nations. It has sought to bestow a greater freedom upon our own people and upon the people of the world. We have worshiped the ideals of free men long enough. We have turned to force

We have worshiped the ideals of force long enough. We have turned to worship at the true shrine of understanding and reason."

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

OWN LETTER SHAKES KIP AND TRIAL IS HALTED

Hint Contents May Bring About Settlement.

New York, Nov. 19.—[Special.]—The Rhineland trial came to an abrupt halt today when two letters from Leonard Rhineland to his wife were introduced. The questions asked by the prosecution, the girl's attorney, just before he handed them to the jury, indicated that they would be the most sensational parts of the case.

So startled were Rhineland's attorneys by this unexpected development that an adjournment was taken, after a lengthy conference, until tomorrow morning.

The letters were written to Alice Jones after the Marie Antoinette hotel incident and referred to what took place there. Just what they contained was not disclosed. Isaac N. Mills, Kip's attorney, seemed to be quite perturbed as he left the court.

Refused Peep at Letter.
One of the letters was shown to Rhineland last Monday, after Davis had asked him if he still wished to continue the case. It was not read at that time. Davis apparently decided the moment had come to introduce it. He asked at that time if he might see the letter, but Davis refused.

The letter episode came up today at a time when every one's nerves were fully frayed by an examination that at times unprintable and a constant dwelling on intimate subjects.

Davis went over the subjects he introduced so exhaustively that the defense attorney finally objected, saying that the constant repetition of questions to which answers had been obtained would be of little value.

This was followed by an even more abrupt attack on Rhineland by Davis. He demanded why Rhineland took a picture of Alice Jones in her nightgown at the Marie Antoinette, and then asked the confused and reluctant witness again and again to tell all that occurred there.

Kip's Hands Tremble.
He hurried a question at Kip as to whether his conduct with Alice at the hotel was "above reproach," and Kip stuttered, "Yes." Then Davis picked up a letter and handed it to the nervous young man. Rhineland's hands were trembling as he looked it over. Justice McChesney suggested a recess, but Davis said:

"I would like to have him read this letter first, your honor, and then I was going to suggest a recess."

Rhineland handed the letter back after a few moments, obviously badly shaken, and Justice McChesney ordered a recess of ten minutes. The ten minutes dragged into twenty-five, however. Mills and Davis went into Justice McChesney's chambers and after a moment began a discussion on some points which led Justice McChesney to quit the room so that he would not be involved in something in which he might have to rule.

Later Davis came out, and Mills could be seen sitting in a chair by a window, looking tired and depressed.

Deny Settlement Rumor.
There were immediate rumors that the letter was of such a nature that a settlement might be sought so that the case would not continue, but they were met with vigorous denial—except from Davis. He wouldn't say anything.

A member of defense counsel denied that there would be a settlement, and he said the main reason for the adjournment so early in the afternoon was to permit Mills to rest.

So the stage is set for the most sensational moment of the trial tomorrow morning, with the odds favoring a continuation of the suit and the reading of the mystery letter, the contents of which have so aroused the curiosity of every one in court.

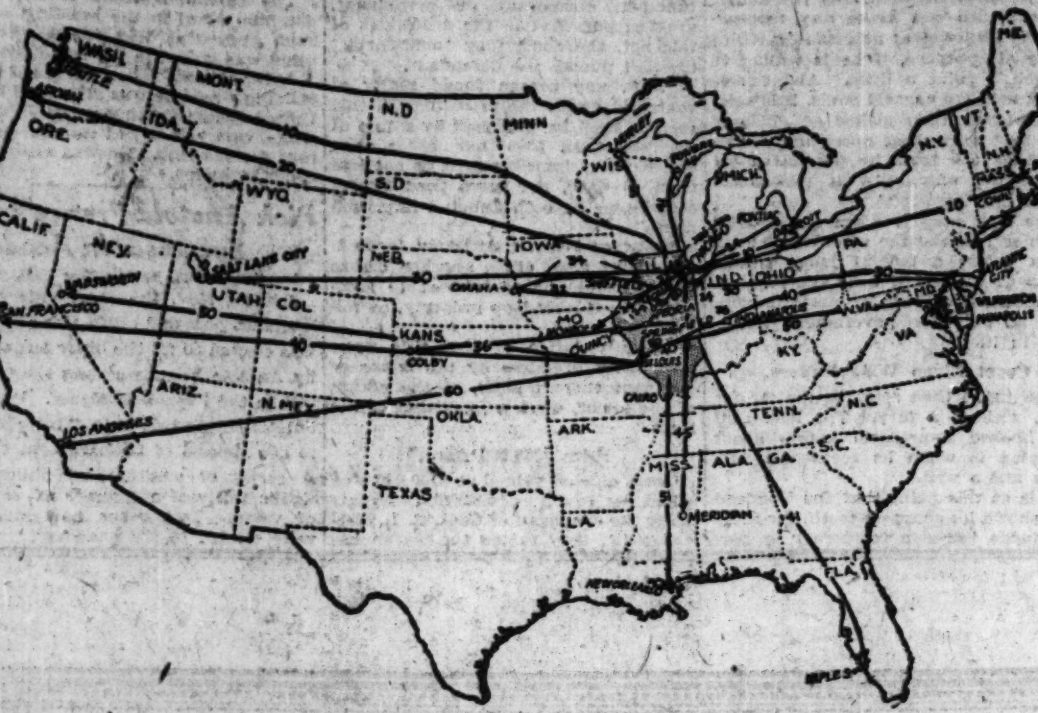

Letter from this episode today, the witness was such as to surfeit the most curious. There was one more moment of comic relief, when Rhineland said that Mrs. Rhineland's

40 BULLET PROOF SHIELDS ORDERED BY POLICE CHIEF

Purchase of forty bulletproof shields, one for each zone squad of the detective bureau, was authorized yesterday by Chief of Police Morgan Collins.

The order for the equipment will be placed with a New York firm by the chief upon his arrival in the east next week.

Each shield is about three feet wide and covers the head and body, leaving the legs below the knees exposed. Near the top is a bulletproof glass porthole. The shield weighs 30 pounds and costs $75.

"Armed with this shield you can advance upon a firing bandit and laugh," Chief Collins said. "The shield has been selected in preference to the bulletproof vest, as it affords protection to the head and part of the body below the waist. Its cost also is less."

LEOPOLD GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY IN JOLIET PRISON

Nathan F. Leopold Jr. yesterday observed his twenty-first birthday in the Joliet penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for the murder of Robert Frank.

The birthday party lasted just thirty minutes. He was visited by his father, Nathan Leopold Sr., his brother, Foreman, and an aunt, Mrs. Bird Schwab. They took with them a few delicacies, which under the prison regulations had to be eaten during the visit.

Otherwise the day was without unusual incident. Young Leopold went to work as usual in the morning. He is a clerk in the shoe department of the prison. After his relatives left he went back on the job.

16 OF NATIONAL HIGHWAYS TO GO THROUGH ILLINOIS

Jardine O. K.'s Plan for U. S. Marked Routes.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[UP]—Sixteen of the 144 "United States Highways" approved today by Secretary Jardine as a national system of roads traversing the country, are routed through Illinois. Twelve of them cross the state, while four are internal in origin, one of which goes outside the state.

Seven either originate at or pass through Chicago. The Illinois roads, with their designations and routings, are:

No. 16—Detroit, Mich., to Seattle, Wash., through Chicago, Madison, Wis., Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana and Idaho.
No. 20—Boston to Astoria, Ore., through Chicago, Rockford and DuQuoin, Ia.
No. 24—Pontiac, Mich., to Monroe, Mo., through Peru, Ind., Gilman, Peoria, Rushville and Quincy, Ill.

From Sea to Salt Lake.
No. 26—Atlantic City, N. J., to Salt Lake City, Utah, through Joliet, Geneva, Ill., and Clinton, Ia.

No. 32—Chicago to Omaha, through Mendota, Rock Island, Ill., and Iowa City.

No. 34—Sheffield, Ill., to Omaha, through Galesburg, Burlington, Ia., and Ottumwa.

No. 36—Indianapolis, Ind., to Colby, Kas., through Tuscola, Decatur, Springfield and Jacksonville, Ill., and Hannibal and St. Joseph, Mo.

No. 40—Wilmington, Del., to San Francisco, through Indianapolis, Ind., Effingham, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo. (formerly known as the National Old Trails highway).

No. 41—Powers, Mich. (upper Peninsula), to Naples, Fla., through Wisconsin, Chicago, and Attica and Terre Haute, Ind.

No. 45—Chicago to Meridian, Miss., through Kankakee, Urbana, Effingham, Fairfield, and Vienna, Ill., and Paducah, Ky.

No. 50—Annapolis, Md., to Wadsworth, Nev., through Vincennes, Ind., Lawrenceville and Salem, Ill., and St. Louis.

No. 51—Hurley, Wis., to New Orleans, through Madison, Wis., Rockford, Mendota, Bloomington, Decatur, Vandalia, and Cairo, Ill.

No. 60—Chicago to Los Angeles, through Bloomington, Springfield, and St. Louis.

No. 124—Peoria to Galesburg, connecting Routes 34 and 24.

No. 330—Chicago to Geneva.

No. 430—Geneva to Elgin and Crystal Lake, Ill.

Routes 330, 430, and 30 connect at Geneva.

Cover Total of 75,884 Miles.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—The proposed national highway system includes 144 through routes, with a total mileage throughout the country of 75,884 miles. East and west routes are given even numbers and north and south roads are designated by odd numbers. Each route is to be marked with standard direction and warning signs of two general classes.

Warning and caution signs—a yellow background, with black letters or symbols—in four different shapes, representing as many degrees of danger, are suggested in the report. Standard route markers, as well as informational signs in the form of a United States shield, with a white background and black letters, are contemplated.

THE DAY'S PENALTIES IN CRIMINAL COURT; EIGHT ARE SENTENCED

Eight sentences were meted out yesterday by judges in the Criminal courts. They are:

JUDGE THOMAS J. LYBON.
Charles Johnson, larceny, 90 days in the House of Correction.

Oscar Levy, robbery, 1 to 10 years penitentiary.
Fred Evans, robbery, 11 months Bridewell.

JUDGE EMANUEL ELLER.
Joseph Whitehead, false pretenses, 10 days county jail.

Edward O'Reilly, assault to murder, 90 days Bridewell.

JUDGE WILLIAM V. BROTHERS.
Albert Strach, confidence game, three months Bridewell.

JUDGE WORTH H. CAYLOR.
Charles O'Neil, burglary, 1 to 14 years penitentiary.

Irving Fryer, confidence game, 1 to 10 years penitentiary.

worth, Nev., through Vincennes, Ind., Lawrenceville and Salem, Ill., and St. Louis.

SHADOW OF NEW DRY BLIGHT ON DEWY CABARETS

Chicago cabaret and supper club managers, when asked yesterday about the recent run on loganberry cups and kindred beverages, quietly advised that the lovers of jollity are again back on the real quill via the hip flask route.

The impression has gained great headway, it is said, that Prohibition Administrator Ed Yellowley was only teasing the night life boys and girls when on Oct. 5 he caused to be spread in the public prints the word that all booze fanciers who bring their own were in imminent danger of being carted from their favorite haunts in patrol wagons.

On the Saturday night following the Yellowley warning, it is said, reservations for seventy parties were cancelled at one supper club, and the usual impromptu clientele was negligible.

The threatened swoop, however, wasn't made because a change of policy has come about.

The New Procedure.

Here's what's going on instead of raids, according to information right out of the Volstead spigot, so to speak: Undercover agents have been busy making buys and claim to have accomplished their aim in more than 150 instances, with a view of proceeding under the nuisance clause of the prohibition law. The clause, though basically civil in classification, may bring contempt citations without the privilege of jury trial, and terms in jail if a Druggan and Lake.

Witness the heavy given an undercover man, under the nuisance clause: The agent proceeds in the usual way to try to purchase liquor, with the exception that he doesn't really have to get the liquor himself. The reason he doesn't is because it isn't necessary to have a chemical analysis made of his supposed purchase.

Merely Uses His Eyes.

It is apparent, then, that the undercover sleuth can make any transaction he witnesses at neighboring tables serve his purpose, if he is willing to stretch a point a little. And undercover men are earnest souls, it is said. The agent then makes an affidavit that he knows what booze tastes like and that the stuff he purchased (or maybe he only saw it purchased) tasted like booze.

The next step is when the district attorney receives the affidavit and appears before a federal judge (Judge Adam C. Cline will hear the impending motions) with an ex parte motion, that is, only the government has a part in it.

Court Given Wide Powers. The judge then sets the matter for trial, without a jury. The first that the hooked impecunious knows about the plan is when he receives a subpoena and a writ.

It is at this point that the Volstead law shows its sharpest teeth, for after the judge issues a temporary or permanent injunction. Section 24 of the Volstead act gives him the following authority:

"In case of the violation of any injunction, temporary or permanent, granted pursuant to the provisions of this act, the court may 'summarily' try and punish the defendant."

"...any person found guilty of contempt under the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment of not less than 30 days, nor more than twelve months, or by both fine and imprisonment."

Assistant District Attorney Jacob I. Grossman also cites another clause which should be of interest to landlords of valuable keep property, as follows:

"Any violation of this title upon any leased premises by the lessee or occupant thereof shall, at the option of the lessor, work a forfeiture of the lease."

Sales $200,000 Alky. Grain alcohol valued at $200,000 was seized by seven prohibition agents under the command of Capt. R. L. Merick when they raided the warehouse of J. R. Scherer, 17 West Austin avenue, late yesterday. Robert Aylward, 3616 Farwell avenue, was taken into custody.

The agents expected to find a re-distilling plant in the building, but no such apparatus was found. The alcohol was stored in 120 large drums.

Aylward was taken to the Federal building where he was arraigned before United States Commissioner James R. Glass, who had issued the search warrant for the raid. He was released on bonds of $1,000.

ROME, Nov. 13.—The communist deputies were literally bodily thrown from the chamber of deputies today by the fascist majority. The communist leader, Sig. Maffi, leader of the party, was demanding the floor, and the fascist majority, celebrating Premier Mussolini's escape from assassination, refused the sentiments of the world.

"We had no time to say any more," said Farinacci, secretary general of the fascist party, heading numerous fascist deputies, dashed towards the communist seats, crying as they went: "There is only one way to save Italy. There is only one way to save Italy. There is only one way to save Italy."

Pulled Out by Whiskers. And the fiery fascist chief struck the communist leader across the face with his fist. Sig. Maffi, leader of the communist party, was pulled out by his whiskers.

DEPUTIES OF MUSSOLINI; EATEN, OUSTED

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, Nov. 19.—The communist deputies were literally bodily hurled from the chamber of deputies today as Sig. Maffi, leader of the party, demanding the floor, said: "The speeches, manifestations, and the celebration of Premier Mussolini's escape from assassination do not represent the sentiments of the working class."

There had no time to say any more. Farinacci, secretary general of the Fascist party, heading numerous communist deputies, dashed towards the speaker, crying as they ran: "There is only one way to answer Maffi's attack against Premier Mussolini and that is this way."

Pulled Out by Whiskers. And the fiery Fascist chief struck the communist leader across the face with his fist. Sig. Maffi, who tried to come to the defense of the communist leader, was caught between the door and there catapulted into the corridor. Similar treatment was meted out to other communist deputies while Sig. Maffi was pulled out by his whiskers.

Sig. Maffi was no sooner free in the corridor, when his blood boiling, he shouted: "Down with Mussolini." Whereupon he shoved the door open with his head. He was only saved from attack by the carabinieri, who prevented the expelled communists from entering the chamber.

Chamber in Uproar. The chamber, of course, was in an uproar, and up in the press gallery communist newspaper men began their approval of Sig. Maffi when he was picked up bodily and pushed out of the chamber. Outside, Sig. Farinacci, a Slav communist, was taken up by a mob so severely that he is expected to have to stay in the hospital. Sig. Maffi, who was not present in the chamber during the row, is expected to return to the press.

Sig. Farinacci's newspaper, the Corriere della Sera, today publishes an article demanding the suppression of the press's greatest newspaper, the Corriere della Sera, and "hoping the prefect of Milan applies against the Corriere della Sera the famous article three," since the greatest absolute authority over the press. This would leave only one powerful opposition paper, El Mundo, in Rome, and every edition of the paper has been requested since its plot against Sig. Mussolini was discovered.

The popular democratic parties, controlling more than 100 votes in the chamber, are still boycotting parliament. Today they issued a communique announcing their "solidarity with Sig. Zaniboni," who was arrested, charged with being the arch fiend in the alleged plot to assassinate the premier.

Plans for Visit. (Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 19.—It is still uncertain whether Premier Mussolini will attend the signing of the Locarno pact in London on Dec. 1, but already extraordinary precautions are being taken in case he does decide to come.

GETS YEAR FOR PICKING POCKET OF POLICE CHIEF

Glyn Bevan, 22 year old son of a minister who formerly lived at 1715 South Third Avenue, Maywood, was sentenced yesterday to serve one year in the Virginia penitentiary. He was tried at Richmond for picking $6 from the pocket of Chief of Police A. T. Trolley at a wild west carnival. His father, the Rev. N. T. Bevan, who entered the real estate business at Interlachen, Fla., after leaving Maywood, sought to have young Bevan placed on probation.

The youth said that he was on his way to Florida from York, Pa., with his bride of a month when he ran short of funds.

NEGRO PIN BOY AT U. OF C. IS CHIEF IN JUNGLE HOME

Charles G. Bloach is the colored pin boy in the bowling alley of the Reynolds clubhouse for University of Chicago students. But in his native jungles he is hereditary chief of a tribe and rejoices in the name Gequammus Shouha, which means the Great Giant Tiger Skin. Gequammus left the village of Nimeah when he was 16 years old, to absorb and take back to his people the culture of the white man. He worked his way to America and through several educational institutions.

Now he's only a year from his bachelor's degree. When he gets it he will go back to the bush.

Simulation

It is difficult successfully to simulate character, where the substance of it is lacking, and this is true of institutions as it is of individuals.

The scientific and dependable character of Almer Coe and Company's service to Chicagoans is something more than a matter of scientific appearance and appearances. It is the time-tried growth of forty years of experience, of research, of conscientious development.

UTILITIES' VISION OF GREATER CITY TOLD IN SURVEY

The advertising council of the Association of Commerce adopted the following resolution unanimously with a voting vote of the 140 members present yesterday in the Red room of the Hotel La Salle:

Resolved, that it is the sense of this Council, which we wish to express with the greatest sincerity and enthusiasm, that THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE be thanked for the splendid work it has supported the plans of the Association of Commerce this week and for the generous publicity it has given.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

Public service corporations—the railroads, local transportation lines, gas, electric, and telephone companies—are preparing for a Greater Chicago of 5,000,000 or more population within the next twenty-five years.

By the spring of 1929 Chicago will have a municipal landing field for aircraft at Cicero avenue and 63d street.

Within a short time thereafter another air terminal will be in operation on the lake front in Grant park.

Feel Pulse of City.

These are only a few of the discoveries the Association of Commerce made yesterday when it put its fingers to the pulse of Chicago and felt the life blood of the city surging through its veins—its public utilities—on the way to future greatness undreamed of a few years ago.

Public utility corporations, exclusive of the railroads, railway terminals, and water transportation concerns, have $1,000,000,000 in round numbers invested in the Chicago metropolitan area. Railroads terminating here, which have a daily movement of 2,800 freight and passenger trains, represent an investment of more than $10,000,000,000.

Will Double Investments.

By 1950, the local utilities contemplate an investment of $2,200,000,000. Railroad investments by that time were declared to be beyond accurate estimation.

Chicago has 775,000 telephones, 788,000 gas meters, and 788,000 electric meters in operation now. Exclusive of the suburban traffic on the railroads and the three interurban electric lines, the local transportation systems, rapid transit, surface lines, and motor coaches—will carry 1,100,000,000 riders this year. This is exclusive of transfers and means about 250 rides.

This story of Chicago's transportation and utility service was told at the Blackstone hotel on the fourth and probably most important of the five day Chicago inventory survey held by the Association of Commerce in commemorating its twenty-first anniversary.

Former speakers addressed the business men at the session, which was presided over by Britton I. Budd, president of three great corporations—Chicago Rapid Transit, Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad, and the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.

A. A. Sprague, commissioner of public works in Mayor Duvall's cabinet, promised the municipal landing field for aircraft by next spring. Plans have been completed for establishing it on a school board tract at Cicero avenue and 63d street. Its dimensions will be one by one and one-half miles.

Agrees on Other Air Field.

The city, federal government, and South Park board are in agreement on the lake front air field. Col. Sprague said. This will be on an island east of the Field museum.

Waterways and harbors were included in the discussion of transportation. Maj. Rufus W. Putnam, resident war department engineer, urged speedy action on the program for harbor development. Although a strong advocate of the Great Lakes to Gulf of Mexico waterway, Maj. Putnam said some extravagant claims are being made by wild-eyed enthusiasts on the possibilities of the waterway.

RAILROADS. Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central, told the story of Chicago as the railway center of the world. Mr. Markham said the railroads must plan wisely now for a city double Chicago's present size.

The Illinois Central, he said, has spent $30,000,000 in improvements in Chicago, more than the entire cost of building its original 700 miles of railroad in Illinois.

"During the coming year we shall spend $15,000,000 more in carrying out our program in the Chicago terminal district," he added. "Improvements now under way and authorized will cost $85,000,000. We expect to begin electrical operation of suburban trains next July."

ELECTRIC INTERURBAN RAILWAYS.

Charles H. Thompson, vice-president of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee and the Chicago Rapid Transit company, said the three electric roads entering Chicago—his own line, the Chicago Aurora and Elgin, and the Chicago South Shore and South Bend—have laid the foundation for the greatest electric railway system in the world. These lines carried more than 23,000,000 people last year and represent an investment of $60,000,000, he said.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION.

RAPID TRANSIT. H. A. Johnson, general manager of the Rapid Transit company, said one-fifth the local transportation is carried on the 1,300 cars of the rapid transit system over a trackage of 217 miles.

SURFACE LINES. Charles V. Weston, consulting engineer, said the surface lines, which carry 75 per cent of the city's traffic, must be taken out from under the "absurd restrictions" which limit franchises to twenty years and prevent satisfactory financing. He said Chicago has the best street car system in the world. There should be a merger of the transportation lines, he said.

Growth of Motor Coaches.

MOTOR COACHES. Garrett Sealey, vice president of the Chicago Motor Coach company, told of the remarkable growth of this system of transportation since it was established in 1917 with fifty buses. The 414 coaches now in operation will carry 60,000,000 passengers this year.

TELEPHONES.

Chicago is on its way to be the biggest and busiest city of the world. William E. Abbott, president of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, said. Telephone conversations are carried on now at the rate of 1,100,000,000 a year. He does not anticipate that radio will supplant wire service for local conversation within any conceivable range of time. Telephone operators will steadily be eliminated through the use of automatic phones, he said.

GAS. John H. Eustace, vice president of the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke company, told how you can do it better with gas. The consumption last year was 31,521,306,000 cubic feet. The company anticipates a consumption of 125,000,000,000 by 1950.

ELECTRICITY.

John F. Giehrst, vice president of the Commonwealth Edison company, said his company's generating plants have a capacity of 1,400,000 horse power, the greatest of any city in the world.

ADVERTISING MEETING.

The advertising council of the Association of Commerce urged aggressive action to further the development of Chicago as a great central market at its meeting yesterday at the Hotel La Salle. It desires to take advantage of the association's inventory at once.

William H. Mann, general manager of the Marshall Field's wholesale business, advocated the advertising of the big things that are being done in Chicago. No mayor seeking reelection could have been much more profuse in referring to them.

Col. Robert E. McCormick, editor of THE TRIBUNE, presented a prophecy of the future of Chicago and its influence upon the nation and other countries.

MEAT MARKET BURNED OF $600. Burglars broke into a meat market owned by Bernard Richter at 3108 West Madison street, early yesterday and escaped with $600.

"Unless a man loves his work nothing is accomplished"

From a recent address by CHARLES M. SCHWAB

THERE is nothing new in the thought that devotion to one's work is essential to achievement. It is a truism that finds ample proof in history. It has been men who loved their art who have produced the finest paintings, ardent patriots who have become the greatest statesmen, and zealous craftsmen who have revolutionized industry.

Yet the practical application of this principle is continually neglected. As Capper & Capper interprets it, this is: "Give a man a work he will love and great things will be accomplished."

And what work can a man so love as one which gives him opportunity for the full expression of his talents, and applies them to the benefit of his fellow men?

Firm in the conviction that these are the essentials to supreme endeavor, Capper & Capper established them in the clothing business. To hundreds of designers, weavers, cutters, tailors and salesmen, it was a new order of things, removing restrictions which had suppressed ambition and confined ability. Instantly there was a response fulfilling every fondest hope; and out of the new order of things in opportunity arose the "New Order of Things" in production and selling, which is now our established order, and the appreciated benefit of thousands of this city's well dressed men.

Pride in craftsmanship and joy of service, allied in the production of Stratford Clothes, are inspirations more powerful than hope of gain. Philosophers have ever proclaimed it; "The New Order of Things" has proved it. Here you can see it for yourself.

DOCTORS MAKE HOLT SLAYING QUEER PUZZLE

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—The Holt-Harco murder trial, now in progress before Judge Claire C. Edwards, is developing into a neat little murder puzzle.

Mrs. Little Holt is found lying on her back on the floor of her Fox Lake home, Sunday, Sept. 20, three bullet wounds in the abdominal region; a fourth and fatal bullet wound in her mouth. Arthur Holt, her husband, and Clara Harco, her daughter, who admit being in the house when the shooting occurred, are accused of murder. Albert Harco, the dead woman's one-in-law, who left the house before the shooting began, is released on bond and charged with being an accessory before the fact.

The three maintain that Mrs. Holt killed herself during the climax of a frenzy.

Suicide Impossible, State Holds.
State's Attorney A. V. Smith and Sidney Block, his associate, declare it is murder and insist that suicide was physiologically impossible, in view of the sequence of the bullet wounds. For ten days the two sides battle.

Then come the medical experts on the scene.

Dr. Frederick Beasley, commander of the Northwestern medical unit in France during the war, called by James D. Welsh and Joseph Kelg, defense attorneys, says Mrs. Little Holt could have inflicted the three wounds in the abdominal region and then have had strength to fire the gun in her mouth.

Rebutted by State's Physician.
The defense closes with Dr. Beasley's testimony, and as the state's first rebuttal witness, Dr. William H. Burmeister of Chicago, for twelve years corner's physician, takes the stand.

Dr. Burmeister is equally emphatic that Mrs. Holt could not have killed herself. He lists, among others, these reasons:

1. The average suicide shoots only once.

2. The three abdominal wounds would have caused Mrs. Holt so great and so immediate shock that she could not have fired the fourth bullet into her mouth.

3. The first abdominal wound was a contact wound; the other two were not. In most suicides, when the first wound is a contact one, the others, if there are others, are also contact.

4. The abdominal region is not a likely place for a suicide wound. The chest and head are the usual places.

Clara Recalls Insanity Warning.
During the laboratory session the spectators almost forgot the morning session when Clara Harco sat in the witness chair. She was calm but wary. And she never varied her story that her mother grew excited; that her husband left; and that her mother quarreled so that she had to say, "Mother, if you keep on having these spells you may have to go to the psychopathic hospital."

Then she told of running into a closet, of hearing four shots, and of coming out when Holt called to her.

BULLETIN TELLS HOW TO PREVENT HEART AILMENTS

Causes of heart disease and how to prevent it are listed in a joint bulletin issued yesterday by Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen, the Chicago Heart Association, and John F. Berry, general superintendent of the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium. The bulletin warns of an increase in deaths from heart ailments and states that its toll is greater than that of other sicknesses.

The bulletin says:
Rest in bed when you have a sore throat.

If the sore throat persists, consult a throat specialist.

If you tire more easily than usual, consult a doctor.

If you are nervous or have St. Vitus dance (chorea) see a doctor and follow his advice explicitly.

"In 1924 heart disease caused 14 per cent of all the deaths in the city," Dr. Bundesen said. "It causes more deaths among children from 10 to 14 years of age than all other so-called children's diseases combined."

VOTES TO STOP POLICE AID FOR DRY LAW LID

Wet members of the city council committee on judiciary took a walk yesterday at Mayor Dever's dry law enforcement program that threatens to pry open the lid by withdrawing the aid of Chicago's 5,000 policemen in enforcing the federal prohibition law.

By a vote of 9 to 2 the committee authorized its chairman, Ald. Jacob M. Arvey (24th) to draft a resolution instructing the chief of police to withdraw all men assigned to enforcement of the prohibition law and detail them to running down thieves and criminals.

How They Voted.

The vote on the measure was:
Yea: Nelson (46th), Self (25th), Brinkley (16th), Frankbouser (49th), Cross (10th), Cronson (14th), Tomash (26th), Petlak (32d), Arvey (24th), Saye (5th) and Barbee (17th).
The measure was introduced by Ald. Nelson, anti-Dever factionalist, after the committee had been quibbling for thirty minutes over the disposal of three resolutions memorializing congress to modify the Volstead amendment. The resolutions were presented to the council some time ago by Ald. John Coughlin (1st) and Stanley Adamkewicz (31st) and former Ald. U. S. Schwartz.

Cries of "Pass."

Cries of "Pass," led by Ald. Tomash, wet leader, greeted the resolutions when presented for action.

Ald. Eaton moved they be filed and was seconded by Ald. Barbee. Then Ald. Nelson suggested they be filed and a substitute offered.

"We will never accomplish anything by adopting resolutions," Ald. Nelson said. "The city has control over its police force but can do nothing when it comes to changing the law."

"I suggest we file these resolutions and draft a substitute directing the chief of police to withdraw all men assigned to breweries and those detailed to running down beer and booze sellers and put them to catching a few thieves and criminals."

A bitter fight is expected to develop on the floor of the council if the committee approves the resolution which Ald. Arvey is directed to draft.

HANDS OF DEATH

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths by autos, guns, and motorbikes in Cook county since Jan. 1. Yesterday was the three hundred and twenty-third day of 1925.

when he was struck, on Oct. 17, by an automobile driven by Walter Dunne, 1614 West 14th street. Dunne was not arrested at the time of the accident.

Mrs. Lydia Boyce, 90 years old, 1585 Chicago avenue, Evanston, a pioneer resident of the north shore suburb who came there in 1852, died in the Evanston hospital last night from a fractured hip and other injuries suffered Nov. 4 when she was struck by an automobile driven by W. A. Peterson, chauffeur for Richard Peterson, 400 Peterson road, while at Chicago avenue and Davis street. Evanston.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson, 72 years old, colored, 6668 Rhodes avenue, was killed by an automobile Wednesday.

TEST VACCINE GUARD AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS

Health Conference Told
of Immunizing Hope.

New York, Nov. 19.—[Special.]—Experts on health made interesting remarks before a two day conference on tuberculosis and health which convened today under the joint auspices of the United States public health service and several local organizations.

Dr. William H. Park, director of the bureau of laboratories of the New York City department of health, discussed tuberculosis. "The decline in serious cases and deaths from tuberculosis began 70 years ago and has continued to the present day," Dr. Park said. "It amounts to over 80 per cent. It began with the appreciation of the nature of communicable diseases elucidated by Pasteur and made more definite by Koch."

Health Officials' Responsibility. "The next step forward was the appreciation that fresh air, sunlight, suitable food and rest were important aids to recovery. The latest advance was bringing to health officials their responsibility to treat tuberculosis as a communicable and preventable disease, and to get the private charitable organizations to join in the endeavor to provide for the needy what would give them the best chance to recover."

While countless experiments are being made to obtain a specific remedy, no serum, drug or vaccine has yet been discovered that will cure tuberculosis, but a vaccine is now being tested which may be of advantage in immunizing those who have not been infected. The best preventive is still to live so that we may have the best possible health and so possess resistance against infection."

Dr. Matthias Nicoll Jr., state commissioner of health, told the conference of what he said was the "enormous waste" in women's lives in pregnancy and child birth in New York state each year.

Death Rate Still High. "The death rate from this cause, which has already been sufficiently well advertised to the shame of the state," he said, "is disgracefully high in New York state and very little, if any, reduction has been brought about in the last twenty-five years."

A plea for the wider explanation of the great public health discoveries of the last few decades was made by Dr. William H. Welch, dean of the school of hygiene and public health at Johns Hopkins university.

Reduction of sickness and death rates, the increase of the average duration of life and the raising of standards of health, well being and efficiency in every community, Dr. Welch said, depended upon widespread utilization of knowledge gained through the amazing advance of medical science.

Dr. Thomas F. Farmer, health commissioner of Syracuse, declared that 50 per cent of maternity deaths could be prevented, but said that little had been accomplished in this country during the last 20 years to decrease the mortality from this cause.

Urges Health Education. Health education in the schools was urged by E. George Payne, acting dean of the school of education, New York university.

"We must conceive health education as a means of bringing about changes in the individual and community life and seek to measure these changes to determine the effectiveness of our instruction," he declared.

DEMOCRATS TO SUPPORT ESTATE TAX CUT, BELIEF

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—Contrary to expectation, Democratic house leaders showed a disposition today to approve the retroactive repeal of estate tax rate increases of the 1924 revenue act. The repeal was voted yesterday by the ways and means committee.

Representative Garner [Dem., Tex.], ranking minority member of the committee, declared the action taken to be proper, notwithstanding the fact that he himself voted for the increases in rates which were written into the 1924 act on the floor of the house over the protest of the administration.

Mr. Garner said the higher rates were put into the law as a result of political conditions existing last year and that it is now proper that what was done then should be undone.

LEAVES GAS ON BY ACCIDENT; DIES. Joseph Pawanski, 43 years old, a printer, 1642 Lincoln street, was found dead in his home yesterday. Gas was escaping from a jet which is believed to have been opened by accident.

MARSHIP OFFICER SAYS LANDSLOWNE DIDN'T PROTEST

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—Launching into a bitter attack on charges made by Mrs. Zachary Lansdowne that her husband had protested against taking the Shenandoah on his last disastrous flight, Lieut. C. E. Marshall appeared as a surprise witness before the naval board of inquiry today. He emphatically asserted that Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne left the ship and without grumbling on the trip that ended in his death.

"By inference, insinuation or otherwise, it could be established that Commander Lansdowne actually feared the weather and that fearing such, he failed to make a proper representation of his apprehension, the logical conclusion is that he wilfully and knowingly jeopardized his ship and jeopardized the lives of forty others of his crew by leaving at that time," Lieut. Marshall asserted.

Poley Is Witness.

Captain Paul Poley, the former defense advocate, who was relieved following charges that he had attempted to influence Mrs. Lansdowne to "retire" her testimony before the naval court, appeared as a witness on his own defense and not only denied the accusations against himself, but asserted he had not been influenced in any of his actions by either Secretary Willbur or officials of the naval court.

Admits Offering Statement.

Frankly admitting that he had offered a statement to Mrs. Lansdowne for her use during the inquiry, Capt. Poley stated that he had discussed the case with her because she was the widow of an old friend and he wanted to help her.

"I wanted her to avoid controversial subjects and maintain the position of a dignified witness," he said. "I told her then that I thought she would be a good witness, because she persisted in drawing in controversial subjects of which she had no direct knowledge."

"I told Mrs. Lansdowne that she had better avoid controversial subjects, otherwise she might be subjected to cross-examination. I also told her it was wrong to call the midwest flight a political flight, as there was no basis for it."

Didn't Try to Frighten.

"She may have mistaken my statement for an attempt to influence her. I have testified to things which I knew were untrue. I would have had to cross-examine her and it would not be pleasant to have to break down a witness whose husband had just died bravely in line of duty. I did not attempt to frighten her."

At the conclusion of the hearing, Capt. Poley's attorney asked a plea that the court formally relieve his client of the stigma of Mrs. Lansdowne's accusations. They will report to their decision tomorrow.

SEEK ARREST OF SMALL AS ROAD LAWS VIOLATOR

Charge He Ignores Pana
Boulevard Stops.

Pana, Ill., Nov. 19.—(AP)—State's Attorney C. H. Fretha left here late this afternoon for Shelbyville to have warrants served on Gov. Len Small and members of his party, charging them with failure to stop at certain boulevards here this morning and with making full turns at street intersections in violation of law.

The state's attorney said the governor was a welcome guest in Christian county, but that he had no more right to violate the law than any other citizen.

Fretha could not be reached tonight for a statement as to whether he had served the warrants on Gov. Small and party. The governor did not pass through Pana on his return trip to Springfield.

A state official, whose name was withheld, said he believed the governor's party probably had been given rights of way through Pana, but would not predict the outcome of the action.

Governor Praises Road System.
Shelbyville, Ill., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The Illinois plan of building hard roads was praised as the greatest in the union by Gov. Len Small at a celebration of the completion of routes 16 and 22 held here today.

"It is said there are 18,000,000 automobiles in the world," Gov. Small said, "and that 1,100,000 of them are owned in Illinois. Whether we approve of this enormous investment in automobiles, we all like to own a car and ride on concrete roads. So I say that we have the greatest, and by far the best, plan for building a complete state highway system that has ever been suggested. I believe it is the only plan under which Illinois ever could have obtained the great system of roads which we are now building."

More for Shelby County.
"Completion of these two great highways now connects Shelby county in every direction with the world's greatest road system. There are now completed on the bond issue plan 4,226 miles, of which Shelby county has approximately fifty miles, costing about $1,475,860. And there are now provided in the new bond issue about forty miles more for Shelby county." Thousands of motor cars poured into Shelbyville from four directions before the celebration started.

The governor was escorted into the city by an inter-county committee of 500. More than 1,000 cars left Mattoon behind the Small party, and this number had risen to 1,500 before they reached here.

EX-FOLLIES GIRL LOSES $25,000 TO WIN DIVORCE

What's a mere $25,000 to a Follies beauty, in this opulent age of fat salaries and movie contracts?

Blonde and beautiful Mrs. John G. Vogt, who before she was that was Juanita Clark of the Follies, and before that Gladys Lents of Philadelphia, concluded it wasn't so much.

And so Judge John R. Caverly, before whom Juanita appeared to ask for sundering of the marital tie binding her to John G. Vogt of Philadelphia, son of the late Frederick Vogt, millionaire packer of that city, awarded her the desired decree.

It automatically released her husband from a prenuptial agreement to go fifty-fifty with her on his share of his father's estate, amounting to $50,000, to be received by him in January, 1927, when he attains his thirtieth birthday.

SHOT FATAL TO GARY POLICEMAN.

REV. CARL CASE ENTERS FLORIDA LAND VENTURE

The Rev. Carl D. Case, who resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Oak Park several months ago, is secretary and director of a Florida real estate firm, with headquarters at Jacksonville.

Literature sent out by the firm to members of the church states that it deals only in improved real estate. Each envelope contains a blank application for stock at $100 a share.

Dr. Case, who was a central figure in the sensational Leland divorce case, resigned his pastorate on a plea of ill health. Members of the congregation made him consulting pastor while he remains in the south. One of his present associates is Frank H. June, formerly a resident of Oak Park.

Silver Fox Breeders Sell 70 Animals for $35,000

McGregor, Ia., Nov. 19.—(Special).—The most valuable shipment probably ever made from a farm in southwestern Wisconsin was thirty-five pairs of silver foxes, sold by Garvey Brothers of Lynxville, Wis., for $35,000 and shipped to buyers in Wisconsin, Iowa, South Dakota, and Utah. Fifty pairs were kept for breeding stock.

WARSHIPS' GUNS COW MOSLEMS; REBELS IN FLIGHT

BY GEORGE SELDES.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]
HIDON, Palestine, Nov. 19.—Arriving here this morning, I found the Christian population rejoicing over the reported withdrawal of the entire Druse force of 3,500 towards the mountains and the Mohammedan population nervous as a result of their shells being called into conference with the governor, who warned them to behave, meanwhile pointing to the harbor, where a French gunboat and destroyer lay.

Ancient Tyre, as well as Phoenician Sidon, both Mohammedan cities with large Christian populations, the latter being the chief American church center in the near east, today were under the guns of warships, which would not hesitate to speak should the Moslems trouble.

Town Cleared by Rebels.
Journeying from Sidon to Djeddah and Marjayoun, I found Joseph Karam, Lebanese Christian leader, with several Christian volunteers, who confirmed that Marjayoun had been cleared by rebels. Meanwhile, I was surprised to find American flivvers, loaded with bedding, approaching, and found women refugees entering the town, retrieving whatever was left, chiefly bedding. Everything else of value had been pillaged. Every one confirmed that Mohammedan Bedouins and other Arabs joined the Druses in this work.

I was able to approach the city. About thirty houses were destroyed. The American civil school was partly wrecked, but the boys' school was intact. However, everything except tables and chairs and bed clothes were gone from every one of the many hundred houses.

The Druses, who have quit Djeddah, Marjayoun, and Karkaba, have concentrated in the valley with their loot. They are centering their operations at Hasbeiyeh, while the French rushed 500 regulars to Djeddah.

The Druses are fleeing from Lebanon, and the French, through efficient action, are mastering the situation. With troops arriving daily, the French will soon operate a dozen more strong columns, ending the rebellion in three weeks. Lebanon hopes to clear out the enemy in three days. Karam has reorganized 400 volunteers.

Seek Near East Peace.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, Nov. 19.—The new French commissioner of Syria, Henry C. Journeval, paid a hurried visit to London this afternoon to see Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, and Colonial Secretary L. S. Amery before starting for Syria Monday. The conversation turned to delimitation of the boundaries between the French mandated territories of Syria and the British mandate of the states of Iraq and Iraq, and also the independent Arab state of Nejd. I understand the ministers agreed that no time should be lost in completing this unfinished task.

POLAND DRAWS ANOTHER CARD IN CABINET GAMBLE

BULLETIN.
WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 19.—(P)—Maciej Rataj, president of the diet, has been asked to form a cabinet to succeed that of Premier Grabski, which resigned last week.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1925: By The Chicago Tribune.]
WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 19.—Following the failure of M. Skrzynski, former Polish foreign minister, to form a cabinet, government leaders are again making frantic efforts to solve the problem created by the fall of the Grabski cabinet last Friday. Tonight negotiations are being carried on which, it is hoped, will lead to the formation of a cabinet.

The permanent government officials are carrying on until it is possible to arrange a coalition commanding a majority in parliament. The parties, however, strongly oppose such a solution on the ground that it would merely postpone the crisis without bringing a remedy to Poland's difficult parliamentary situation.

Call Loan Only Hope.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
RIGA, Latvia, Nov. 19.—Sunday's Moscow Pravda devotes a leading article to the political and financial crisis in Poland. The Pravda believes Poland's only hope now rests on the possibility of obtaining a loan from America or England.

The present Polish crisis cannot be settled by parliamentary combinations, because the present numerous political parties make a majority vote impossible. The Pravda calls the rumor that Gen. Pilsudski is planning to overthrow the government and form a military dictatorship fantastic, as he is opposed by all the conservative parties, who call Gen. Pilsudski a Red, "despite the fact that Gen. Pilsudski's followers are being subsidized by the English ambassador to Poland, Mr. Muller."

Scott at Dictator Talk.
The Pravda continues: "Unless Gen. Pilsudski obtains the support of the higher officials of the army, who are former Austrian army officers, there is little hope that he can establish a dictatorship."

While the intense political fight is being waged in Warsaw, communist agitators are spending huge amounts of Moscow's money throughout Poland developing communist organizations.

R. R. FIREMEN TO ASK PAY BOOST OF 7 PER CENT

Two hundred general chairmen of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers met yesterday at the Capitol building and discussed changes in working rules and a general movement to obtain a wage increase. While officials were reluctant to discuss the wage problem, it was learned that they will ask for a 7 per cent wage increase.

The United States railroad labor board reduced wages of firemen in 1921 from $4.45 to $3.85. Last year the members of the brotherhood were given a 5 per cent wage boost on class A engines. Later the engineers will meet, agree on wage demands, and then the demands of the two organizations will be submitted jointly to the railroad management.

O. P. LEADERS TALK HARMONY WITH DENEEN

BY PARKE BROWN.

It may not amount to anything new, but at least there is a new effort on the part of the Republican leaders in Cook county to get together, compromise differences, and present a harmony ticket in the primary next April.

In recent years factional warfare among Republicans has been bitter and unrelenting. There have been many combinations.

Now there seems to be on foot an effort toward a union of all the Republican forces of moment in the city and county. Apparently the thought originated with Charles S. Deneen, who, in his new capacity as United States senator, is said to feel some of the responsibility of national leadership in the county.

In any event, Deneen and former Attorney General Brundage have talked together twice. Both are uncommunicative, but it is rumored there is little in the way of their Deneen-Brundage alliance against the Crowe-Barrett forces which, in such a situation, might deal with Deneen, might be considered as having a fifty-fifty chance in the primary.

Here arises for mention one of the big factors that may control the outcome of the negotiations. It also probably played a big part in the meeting between Deneen and Charles V. Barrett, the latter, although holding only the title of treasurer of the regular or 1916 committee, being the actual boss of that organization.

Deneen and Barrett talked Wednesday. It is reported they did not get along so well as Deneen and Brundage. And the reason, it is said, was the factor already referred to.

It is contended by the advocates of party solidarity that its factions should settle their differences among themselves and without outside aid or interference. But one of the biggest assets of past Brundage-Barrett-Crowe alliances has been its ability to do business with the regular Democratic organization headed by George E. Brennan.

The Democrats have the election machinery and also, while it is not so important except in a few wards, the police force. Those are general advantages but there is a more specific one. In the case of a county primary the election machinery starts with the office of the county clerk now held by Robert M. Switzer.

The Deneen people would like to see the Barrett and Brennan combination broken up. They have a sanitary trustee, Frank J. Link, who now is voiceless. They have two of the five members of the south park commission, but the coalition of the third Republican, Louis J. Behan, with the two Democrats, E. J. Kelly and Michael L. Igoe, give the latter three complete power.

The Deneenites are said to insist that party reform should begin at home and that all Republicans should be Republicans. And that doesn't sound enticing to those Republicans reaping the benefits of bipartisan deals.

COAL OPERATORS CONFER; SILENT ON LEWIS OFFER

New York, Nov. 19.—[Special.]—The Anthracite Operators' conference, representing the entire hard coal industry, held a meeting today. Spokesmen admitted that a long discussion took place on the recent statement of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, in which he said that whenever the operators were prepared to resume "amicable negotiations" the miners were ready "to work out a contract for from one to five years' continuous operation of the mines."

None of the operators would say what his reactions had been, or whether the conference had decided making any response. It was indicated that a return statement might be expected tomorrow.

ALDERMAN ASKS HOW TO INVITE INDUSTRIES HERE

Horan Writes to W. R. Dawes for Advice.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Alderman Dennis Horan, chairman of the council committee on streets and alleys, urged President W. R. Dawes of the Association of Commerce yesterday to suggest means to encourage new industries to locate in Chicago.

In his inventory the association listed as one demerit that the city has discouraged industries by delay in granting switch track privileges and in vacating needed streets and alleys. In reply Alderman Horan asserts that there may have been delays in years gone by, but he is certain there have been no avoidable delays since he has been chairman.

"I desire," he wrote, "that Chicago shall obtain the reputation of being the most accommodating large city in the nation in granting switch track privileges and in the vacation of needed alleys and streets to obtain new industries and to enlarge old ones."

Ald. Horan said small towns offered factory sites gratis, while he had heard of one city that offered free water service for five years.

Chicago's Position Different.

"Because of its enormous advantages in other directions, Chicago has not thought it necessary to date," he wrote, "to offer such inducements, but your opinion should be of value on the entire subject. To illustrate, your inventory says we are about to lose the airplane industry because of the lack of appreciating its importance. Is there something you desire us to do in that connection? Is there a particular landing field you deem most advantageous? Do you desire switch track facilities for that location?"

"Are there some alleys or streets through it which mitigate against its use? Do you want the city to compile and distribute a pamphlet setting forth the merits of Chicago as an airplane center? Are there airplane manufacturers you desire the city to invite to Chicago? Are there any unusual inducements you desire given these manufacturers or your association in this matter?"

Asks About Foreign Data.

"Does any European country have any data on the subject you think we should collect? Should the city invite in the leading bankers—those likely to finance airplane activities—for a discussion of the entire subject for the purpose of arriving at a feasible and practical program? The idea I am attempting to convey is simply this: please write me any suggestions you think would be helpful in getting more and larger industries for Chicago."

Since the city has been sound Ald. Horan says that there is "no reason why industries should not be given the widest latitude compatible with city-wide welfare." He asserts that Chicago is essentially an industrial city, the federal government has shown that industrial enterprise far outnumber any other kind in Chicago.

"We can have in Chicago all the banks, theaters, stores and like enterprises of the state," Horan's letter continues, "but the foundation to all of them are the plants, mills, foundries and other industrial establishments. We would not have half the Chicago we do, or a third of the Chicago to be without our industries, even if we had everything else."

Hopes for Helpful Plans.

"I am confident several helpful programs to promote industries can be

Says Ed Is Skinniest Man In Town

Cherish Ed—things aren't as bad as they look to you right now. Many hundreds of skinny, gaunt, emaciated men looked even worse than Ed. If someone told them about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets (the new way to take Cod Liver Oil) and how it would put pounds of good firm, healthy flesh on their bones in just a few weeks.

Nothing like these health creating, weight producing tablets for skinny, underweight men, as thousands can testify. Start to take them today—80 tablets—50 cents at any drugist anywhere.

And listen: if they don't put 50 pounds of good flesh on you in 10 days, your drugist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

That's fair enough, but be sure—very sure that you get McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—the original and genuine.

7,000 SEE CORN HUSKING CROWN WON BY ILLINOIS

Burgess, Ill., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Elmer Williams, 35, of Toulon, Stark county, Ill., proved himself to be the "Red" Grange of the corn belt today when he husked a net total of 2,564.3 pounds of corn in an hour and twenty minutes at the midwest husking championship contest here. Five states sent representatives to the contest, and Williams is entitled to the honor of the world's fastest corn husker by his victory.

Illinois, which never before has won the championship in the interstate contest, also was runner-up this year.

Walter Olson of Rio, Kan., county, came in second with a net total of 2,412.5 pounds of corn. J. Sudick of Lincoln, Neb., was third.

Several hundred of the 7,000 spectators followed each contestant cheering their favorites on. Mounted officials kept the crowd ten feet back of the shuckers. The winner received $100 in cash, donated by farm magazines in the states represented.

TWO GIRLS FIGHT OFF ASSAILANTS; COPS HUNT THEM

Police are searching for two men
who attempted to hold up or assault girls near their homes last night, the girls in each case fighting off their assailants.

Miss Florence Wagner, 18, of 3810
North Irving avenue, reported to the North Robey street police that a man about 50 years old had attempted to drag her into an alley near her home about 8 o'clock in the evening. He ran away when she screamed and fought him off.

Margaret Black, 16, of 3741 Herndon street, reported that a young man who held an automatic pistol in one hand
and an overcoat in the other held her up after stepping out from between two houses near her home. She said she escaped after striking him in the face with a box of ice cream.

MAINLEVE S. O. S.
DEGS RESCUE OF
SINKING FRANCVargas Deputies to Speed
Finance Reform.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—(AP)—"Tragic circumstances," said Premier Painleve in the final debate in the chamber of deputies today, forced on him "the task of asking parliament to vote bold measures," whereby he responded to provide a sinking fund for the French debt.

Painleve declared there was no
time to be lost and that the government placed before the chamber its responsibilities and asked it to decide definitely between a rallying policy and a positive action.

Must Stabilize Money.
"The question," the premier added,
is whether we shall allow our money
to go on depreciating or take preliminary steps toward stabilization. The first of those steps is to renovate the monetary system and provide for debts, so as to give the money stable value at home. Then, through international action, we can stabilize it abroad."

By resolutely particularly the evil
case that his project for forced conversion of the bonds maturing Dec. 1 constituted the first default of the French government since the revolution.

"That decision," he declared, "taken under such forced circumstances, no
one in the world can reproach us for."
Fall to Reach Vote.

The debate previously had become extremely confused, each speaker presented a different thesis. The premier's intervention was in the nature of a plea rather than a technical argument, and threw little light on the issues. An attempt to shorten the discussion and reach a vote on the article tonight failed. The debate will be resumed at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Dutch Return to Gold;
Hidden Coins Dug Up

THE HAGUE, Nov. 19.—Holland
has now entirely reverted to gold,
which had disappeared from circulation for more than eleven years. The Netherlands bank on Monday disposed of 46,000,000 florins (roughly, $24,000,- 000) in gold coins and uncoined gold valued at 46,000,000 florins ($24,000,- 000). Today unconditional release was announced for a large quantity of "Gold Wilhelms," and every one is now hunting up long forgotten gold.

ROYAL TRAPPINGS
THWART PLAN TO
X-RAY KING TUTPharaoh Died at 18, Savants Report.

BY A. STANLEY PARKER.

(Copyright, 1925; By The Chicago Tribune.)

CAIRO, Nov. 19.—The fact that X-rays are impossible, owing to the impossibility of removing King Tutankhamen's body from the coffin, to which it is stuck by a pitchlike libatory liquid, and also because it is covered with layers of wrappings, amulets, bracelets, and pectorals resistant to

the rays, is revealed by an official communication issued this evening.

The announcement says the king's age at death may be fairly accurately fixed at eighteen years. It also gives details of the objects found on the body, which are classified in three categories, namely, amulets, royal, and personal, rendering it possible to re-constitute the royal regalia and revealing a refined taste.

Find Precious Trappings.

The most important objects found on the body include a royal diadem; a vulture and a serpent as insignia upon the head, amulets, figures of divinites around the neck, and numerous pectorals, large and small, upon the chest. Some of the amulets have plaques sixteen layers deep, while some pectorals comprise many hundreds of sections of elaborate encrusted cloisonne work, so made that it could not be taken apart for cleaning.

On the arms are eleven magnificent bracelets and on the hands thirteen massive rings. Around the waist are two beautiful girdles, from which is suspended a beautiful worked dagger.
Between the legs is a royal apron composed of sections of inlaid gold work,
while on the feet are golden sandals.
Each toe and finger is encased in a gold sheath.

No Trace of Documents.
A great number of other amulets were found, intended to protect the king's underworld journeyings, but still there is no trace of documents.
The king's golden mask has proved to be a realistic similitude, as now the king's face is visible. The king evidently was slightly built.

Wood Sidetracks Business
to Save Life of Woman
MANILA, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Official business was sidetracked by Gov. Gen.
Wood to save the life of the wife of an American official it was learned today. The executive was on his way to the southern islands on an inspection trip. About 100 miles south of Culion his yacht, the Apo, picked up a radio message that Mrs. C. Perkins, wife of the chief chemist of the Culion leper colony, was desperately ill, and that her life could be saved only by her removal to Manila for treatment. Gen. Wood immediately ordered the Apo turned about.

SON SOLVES DEATH MYSTERY.
Mystery surrounding the cremation of a body under the name of James A. Boyce of Denver, former college president, was cleared away yesterday when William E.
Boody, labor leader of East St. Louis, Ill.,
declared that the dead man was his father,
Joseph Boody, 71 years old.

10,320 columns!

The Chicago Tribune's October Lineage
breaks all its advertising records.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE carried last month 10,320 columns of advertising. With a tremendous total of 3,095,973 agate lines, The Tribune printed the greatest volume of advertising of any month in the 77 years of its existence.

This increase is not simply the ordinary gain which many American newspapers have had under the present period of prosperity. It is vastly greater than the average gain and shows the power of The Chicago Tribune to build business for advertisers who use Tribune space regularly and adequately.

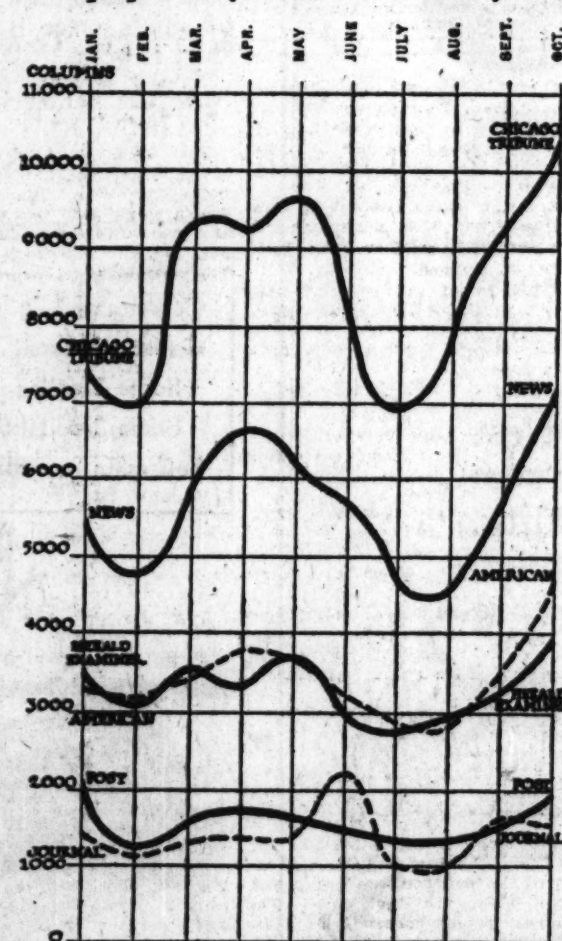

Advertisers in this market have the advantage not only of a rich territory with great concentrated population, but they also have one great, influential newspaper—The Chicago Tribune—which dominates the territory.

Twice this year The Tribune broke all previous records in the amount of advertising lineage carried. Last May set the record up to that time with a total of 9,636½ columns—2,890,938 agate lines. October piled on top of this an additional gain of more than 200,000 lines for a new record. This is a gain of 7 per cent over the previous high month—nearly twice the gain of any other Chicago newspaper and almost equaling the total gains of the five other Chicago newspapers combined.

This astonishing record of increase in advertising lineage is proof of Tribune ability to create consumer demand for advertised products. A Tribune man will gladly show you how other advertisers have dominated their fields in The Chicago Territory through the use, exclusively, of Chicago Tribune space.

Mrs. W. Ernest Walker Gives Dance for Her Debutante Daughter

Gay colored balloons floated over the dancers at the ball given last evening at the Casino by Mrs. William Ernest Walker for her debutante daughter, Miss Edith Walker. Miss Walker was attired in a gaudy old-fashioned frock of blue tulle. A tight bodice, an uneven skirt, with a piquant little bouquet of pink satin flowers with a long silver ribbon streamer at the girdle made the bud look like a debutante of yesterday. Mrs. John Rogers of New York City, who was in Chicago for Miss Walker's debut tea on Monday, had returned to New York, but Mrs. Mason Blake, who is visiting Mrs. Walker, was present. Mrs. Walker was wearing a gown of periwinkle blue trimmed with pearls.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Nov. 19.—[Special.]—Despite the promise of an early season owing to the opening of an opera a week in advance of its usual date and other almost infallible signs of social activities seem to be a little slow in gathering momentum.

Mr. and Mrs. William Church Osborn, who have been spending the autumn at their country place at Garrison-on-Hudson, have returned to their house at 40 East 36th street.

Mr. and Mrs. David Merwin Milton, who recently returned from Europe, where they spent their wedding last May, have taken an apartment for five years at 27 Park avenue. Mrs. Milton, formerly Miss Abby Rockefeller, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr.

College Club Tea

The College club will give a tea from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon for the recent graduates of colleges on the accepted list of the College club, under the auspices of the membership committee. The College club will be singing at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Homer W. Bang, Mrs. Charles H. Dennis, and Miss Isabel E. Gardner are the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bendix were hosts to Mrs. Bendix's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome P. Blower, Miss Mildred DeWolf, and Jack DeWolf Jr.

Also in the upper boxes were Mrs. Hubert Burnham of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. Dean, William Dean, Miss Alice Haney and Theodore Ritch.

Another Evanston group included Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dryden, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hinkley, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Green.

The Charles H. Schweppe box was occupied by Mrs. H. R. Platt, Miss Theodora Platt, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tuttle, Miss Gertrude Gladwin, and Arthur P. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting and Mr. and Mrs. Augustus A. Carpenter.

Energy Foods the Prescription for Abnormally Thin

The world is divided into two classes, apparently—those who eat and those who are glad to be rid of it and then as would like to be around when some of it is shed. Whether this is worse to be wedged in so tight in a movie seat you have to have a derriere extralease you or be in a seat and have some one lay his hat and coat on you, thinking the seat unoccupied, is for the extra heavy and the extra lean to wrangle out between themselves. Extremes in either direction are unwelcome.

Of the two, the average woman would vote for the lightweight, undoubtedly. And that would be all right if the underweight were not too much underweight.

Thin persons are apt to feel a lot more energetic and better generally than the overweight, unless their vitality is reduced by the wrong kind of food and wrong habits of living, which frequently the reason for excessive thinness, except in instances of abnormal or diseased conditions that cause the thinness. In which event there is only one course to pursue, and it is to let a good physician guide you out of your ailments.

There is a great deal of waste in the lives of the abnormally thin—waste of energy and waste of food. In the latter waste you classify the wrong kind of food that is often indulged in. The waste of energy lies in nervous activity and refusal to rest and sleep sufficiently to restore strength.

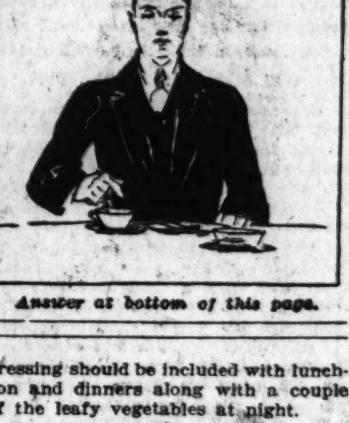

It is not by eating quantities of food that one gains weight, but in eating foods that are easily digestible, foods that furnish energy. Foods such as cream soups, milk, fat meats and fish, cream and butter, and starchy vegetables. But the importance of eating plenty of leafy vegetables is often overlooked. Without these heartily included in menus getting fat on the rich foodstuffs often leads to invalidism. You must have enough of these leafy vegetables and fruits to aid elimination, otherwise the cause is lost. The fattening foods are advised, of course, even to ice cream and whipped cream desserts, but salads with oil dressing should be included with tunc-eon and dinners along with a couple of the leafy vegetables at night.

For breakfast a good fattening menu would be oatmeal and cream or buckwheat cakes, well spread with butter and sirup, buttered toast, and a glass of half and half milk and cream. Or, if coffee must be taken, then coffee and milk, half and half. Or fruit—bananas and cream, or stewed fresh figs, bacon and eggs, cereal and toast.

For luncheon—a cream soup and salad with oil or whipped cream dressing and milk.

Dinner: Pork chops or fat beef, roast pork or bacon, mutton chops or ham, potatoes or rice as a starchy vegetable, one or two leafy vegetable like cabbage, spinach, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, rich gravy, bread and butter and half and half cream and milk as the drink. For dessert a cream whip, the cream, chocolate, custard or bananas and cream. Cheese and nuts might be added. A glass of orange juice or an apple before retiring is advised.

Pitfalls and Collars.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—The sad tale of how a tall white collar will help to make a fat neck look fatter has been told you already this week. But behold our stout friend, escaping that pitfall, tumbled into another.

Walking out on Fifth avenue, he was met by his tactful friend.

"Good morning," said the tactful friend, "how fat and thick your fat neck looks."

"Deacon," complained the fat and thick one, "I thought it would be all right now, seeing that I threw away all my tall white collars."

"Well," replied the same tactful pal, "it would be except that you've gone and bought a striped shirt with collar to match. The stripes in the shirt run all right. They're up and down, but darned if the stripes in the collar aren't horizontal. They chase round and round, and by the time the eye follows them around your neck a half a dozen times, you feel like going to an oculist. It's a long trip, and you're calling attention to it with those horizontal stripes."

In addition to which, the tendency of horizontal stripes is to make a thing look squat. You know vertical stripes are recommended for length. That doesn't mean you should purchase a vertically striped collar, but simply avoid the things which work against you.

New . . . ¹ Fresh baked Case & Martin Tea Room Pies . . . ² Made in a new Kitchenette size for small families . . . ³ Packed in individual cartons—ready to take home and serve

You can enjoy pie oftener when you serve these new-size pies

"YOUR fresh-baked Tea Room Pies are delicious," women are telling us constantly, "but they are too large for our small family. We always have some left over. Why don't you make a smaller pie, sufficient for the average small family, and sell it at a lower price?"

It seemed a reasonable question. The more we considered it, the more we talked with men and women about it, the more we were convinced that the reason people do not have pie at home as often as they would like is because most pies are too large for the average small family.

And so, to satisfy Chicago's "pie appetite," we have brought out a new size Tea Room Pie—the Kitchenette size for small families.

And, to insure the utmost freshness, we have placed these pies, just as they come from the oven, in attractive individual cartons.

You can have pie oftener

With these new-size pies, you can serve pie just as often as you like. For the family of two or three or four, this Kitchenette size is ideal—just enough for a serving, with none left over. You will always be able to serve these Tea Room Pies the day they are baked.

And it's not a cheaper pie, though it costs less. It's the same Tea Room quality that you have always found in the large Tea Room Pies. Only the size is changed.

Wholesome, healthful Tea Room Pies—in a size that is more convenient for smaller families! The finest pastry flours, rich shortenings, choice spices and seasonings, fresh fruits, delicious custards and creams—all these are blended into marvelous confections which would do credit to the richest table in the land.

Where to buy these pies

Serve these pies—often. If your family is large, or if you have guests for dinner, you'll want the large size Tea Room Pies. If there are only a few, the new Kitchenette size will be ample.

Today, in many groceries and delicatessens, you will find Case & Martin's Tea Room Pies—in the new Kitchenette size. As fast as the demand can be met, more stores will be added until, eventually, all of the better stores will have them. And your favorite grocer or delicatessen can get them now—if you will telephone us.

We invite you to try a Case & Martin Tea Room Pie—Kitchenette size or regular size—for dinner tonight. We'll assure you of a real treat—without the bother and uncertainty of home baking. And we'll assure you, likewise, that no home-baked pie can be made with finer materials, richer ingredients, fresher fruits, or baked under conditions of more exacting cleanliness.

Order early in the day

It's wise to order early. Telephone your store as early in the forenoon as possible so that you may be sure of getting a fresh-baked Tea Room Pie the same day. Many housewives place a standing order for certain days of the week; others anticipate their needs and order a day or two in advance.

But, whatever you do, try a Case & Martin Tea Room Pie. A new delight awaits you. Order one today—sure.

Catering to a public demand

Bakers tell us that the bringing out of this new Kitchenette size pie is a remarkable achievement which again establishes the Case & Martin right to leadership.

Nutritional tests have established that pie is a healthful, wholesome food. Dieticians recommend that children should have pie oftener. And all of us remember our childhood days when mother's pies were served several times a week.

Chicago enjoys pie. In bringing out this new-size Tea Room Pie, therefore, we are catering to a public demand—we are bringing these delightful Tea Room Pies within the reach of more families at a lower price.

GORDON LEAVES MIDW

GORDON, full back of University of Chicago grid last year, who has been in the line this season because of his standing, has left school to enter business. It was reported yesterday that Maroon players believed Gordon would leave a mainstay of the 1925 squad. His defensive prowess and plunging play having marked him as an exceptionally brilliant player in 1924.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL

Wisconsin and Chicago, football teams since 1894, will meet on the field tomorrow in a game of importance to both schools. One which will attract a large crowd because of the importance of other games in the die west. In Wisconsin's case, a since year eleven the two schools have battled on the field.

GEORGE LITTLE, in the line of the Tribune Photo, is a kind of star. While both teams have been defeated by conference teams this season, each is bent on winning tomorrow's struggle to rate higher in the Big Ten standing. In addition to this, the game is a tie score by Chicago and being defeated by Illinois, Chicago has lost two intercollegiate games to Pennsylvania and Dartmouth.

Badgers Show Improvement. Wisconsin, although it lost to Illinois and was tied by Minnesota, having a successful season. The Badgers came into their own by winning over Iowa, and if Chicago can be defeated, the season will be considered successful at Madison. The Badgers also defeated Purdue, won their conference games in commanding fashion, and should be at the peak of their game tomorrow.

In recent years, Wisconsin played its best game against Chicago. Last season, the Badgers played Maroons to a scoreless tie in the first half. Previous to this game, Coach Little had been defeated by Notre Dame and Michigan.

School Backs Little. This year a new coaching staff has been installed. George Little, coach and athletic director, has all that was expected of him. He instituted a new system of play which players do well to master so quickly. Alumni and students have stood behind the new coach. Since these teams first met on the field, Chicago has always respected the fighting spirit of the Cardinals. In the past, the Maroons have given the edge on ability and form. The Badgers rose to the occasion, either won the games or held opponents to tie scores.

Both Teams Keen to Win. Those who journey to Star tomorrow will see another great battle. Both coaches will place their strong combinations on the field, and the winner will be determined by a small margin. Both have strong defenses for straight play, but each has shown a weakness against forward pass offense. The Cardinals are expected to attack, and the Badgers will be hard to beat. Maroon brothers, McAndrews, are excellent backs, while Little is the equal of the Maroon's.

Kicks May Decide It. While Little has concentrated on this game, the same is true of Coach Stag of Chicago. It is the final intercollegiate football game many of the Midway players will try to close their careers in. Many of the games between the two teams have been won by field goals. It may be the case tomorrow when Curley have shown their ability to boot the ball over the crossbar at critical times, and Coach Little has two or three players who are experts in this art. Punting is an important factor, and the team which the kicks are handled with a bearing on the result.

Tribune Decision

Decisions of Tribune boxing commentators are:
1. Aaron, G. Eddie Shon stopped by 10; Don Davis best Joe by 10.
2. Philadelphia—George Blakes beat by 10; Joe Shannon best by 10; Fisher (10).
3. New York, N. J.—George Ward best by 10; Hart 10.
4. New York, N. Y.—Manny Ray best by 10; Sammy 10.

GORDON LEAVES MIDWAY

WILL GORDON, full back on the University of Chicago grid squad last year, who has been ineligible this season because of school standing, has left school to go to business. It was reported at the university yesterday. Maroon adjutants believed Gordon would be a mainstay of the 1926 squad, his plucky prowess and plunging power having marked him as an exceptionally brilliant player in 1924.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Wisconsin and Chicago, football rivals since 1894, will meet on Stagg field tomorrow in a game of great importance to both schools, and one which will attract a capacity crowd regardless of the importance of other gridiron battles in the middle west. In 1924 Wisconsin defeated Chicago, 30 to 6. Since that year eleven of the two schools have battled on chalk lined fields in the hardest kind of struggles. While both teams have been defeated by conference teams this year, each is bent on winning tomorrow's struggle to raise higher in the final Big Ten standing. In addition to being held to a tie score by Ohio State and being defeated by Illinois, Chicago has lost two intercollegiate contests to Pennsylvania and Dartmouth.

Badgers Show Improvement.
Wisconsin, although it lost to Michigan and was tied by Minnesota, is having a successful season. The Badgers have won their own by winning over Iowa, and if Chicago can be defeated the season will be considered successful at Madison. The Badgers defeated Purdue, won their non-conference games in commanding fashion, and should be at the peak of their game tomorrow.

School Backs Little.
This year a new coaching system has been installed. George Little, head coach and athletic director, has done what was expected of him. He installed a new system of play which the players do well to master so quickly. Little and students have stood solidly behind the new coach and his theories. These teams first met on the field, Chicago has always respected the fighting spirit of the Cardinal. On several occasions, the Maroons were on the edge on ability and form, but the Badgers rose to the occasion and won the game or held their opponents to the score.

Both Teams Keyed to Win.
Those who journey to Stagg field tomorrow will see another great battle. Both coaches will place their strongest players on the field, and indifference to the winner will be determined by a small margin. Both have a strong defense for straight plays, but both show a weakness against the forward pass offense. The Cardinal was weak against Michigan, and Chicago showed it has a lot to learn of a forward pass in the struggle with Wisconsin.

Wisconsin is expected to unfold a forward pass attack judging from the Dartmouth's passes bewildered Maroons. Coach Little undoubtedly will employ a close and open attack, and if the plays of both sides are properly mixed the game will be hard to beat. The Maroon brothers, McAndrew, and the excellent back, while the Maroons are the equal of the Maroons.

Kicks May Decide It.
George Little has concentrated all his efforts on this game, the same is true of Coach Blagg of Chicago. It will be a close, tactical football game. Many of the Midway players who try to close their careers with a victory in this game. The game between these two teams has been won by field goals. It may be the case tomorrow, as Curley have shown sharp ability to boot the ball over the crossbar at critical times and Coach Little has two or three players well versed in this art. Punting will be an important factor, and the manner in which the kicks are handled may be the deciding factor in the result.

AWAIT MICHIGAN'S FLANK ASSAULTS

"Minnesota's wing men, Wheeler (left) and Tuttle are two big reasons why Gopher fans expect their team to break up Michigan's running attack in Saturday's game at Ann Arbor. (Tribune Photo.)"

Gopher Sophs Strut; They're Grid Heroes

BY JAMES CRUSINEBERRY.

UP at Minnesota the sophomores rule the campus. In most colleges a sophomore is supposed to be something of a god. In some colleges down east they call 'em gimpsers. The sophomores have just recovered from the frivolous ways of the freshman. He has just a little learning, and the old maxim is that a little learning is a dangerous thing. But Minnesota sophomores have upset the tradition. They are strutting the campus with more dignity than juniors or seniors. They move in select circles and people take off their hats to them. Any young man wearing "1925" across his jersey has the right of way. He can strut standing still.

Spears Turns to Sophs.
So Dr. Spears revolved his 250 pound self and passed upon the new men, the sophomores. He put them to work and now for the closing games of the season he has a team in the fight for the conference championship. It is a horde of sophomores with just a sprinkling of juniors and seniors. There was only one letter man, Wheeler, on the team that beat Iowa last Saturday. It will be this same crew of sophomores who will battle Michigan tomorrow for the title. Among this crew of youngsters are three fellows who stand out.

In Herbert Joesting, full back, Harold Almqvist, quarter back, and Harold Murrell, half back, Minnesota has three sophomore stars who will be candidates for places on the all-conference eleven. Perhaps their success may be largely due to Dr. Spears and his shift. He has perfected the shiftest shift of the season. It takes alert men to execute these shifty formations. The team lines up with the forwards rather wide and with the backs spread. A couple of signals are given, and at the exact fraction of a second everybody hops. Truly hop once, twice, perhaps three times and the widespread formation is transformed into an attacking body thrusting at the enemy line.

Deadly Trio Any Time

It may be Joesting hitting off tackle, Murrell taking it around end, or Almqvist receiving it to throw a pass. Any one of this trio can smash, run or pass.

Bo Molenda, full back, is the plunger upon whom Michigan will depend to battle the Minnesota line. He is one of Yost's most consistent ground gainers.

the art of cutting in at just the right time, and he's a hard man to stop. Almqvist is the terror. The third or fourth man who tackles him generally brings him down. By that time he has flung himself forward for eight or ten yards or more.

COUNCIL MUST ACT ON STADIUM PERMIT AT N. U.

It is up to the Evanston city council to either grant or reject the application of Northwestern university to build a stadium 46 feet higher than allowed by the present regulations of the zoning board. A couple of signals are given, and at the exact fraction of a second everybody hops. Truly hop once, twice, perhaps three times and the widespread formation is transformed into an attacking body thrusting at the enemy line.

Gophers Leave for Ann Arbor; 10,000 Cheer

Celebration stunts galore marked the departure. The band led the fans in a snare dance from their bonfire on the campus to the depot. The Gophers' last workout was light. Spears sent his men through a short scrimmage, drilling them in defensive tactics against Michigan plays.

Tackle Hyde Sick.
The team probably will be without the services of its best reserve tackle, Neil Hyde, who has been sick all week. He was with the party that left for Ann Arbor, but he isn't expected to be used against Michigan.

The Gophers will arrive in Chicago early tomorrow morning and will depart immediately for Jackson, Mich., where they will remain until Saturday morning.

More than 3,000 Minnesota rooters and their 100 piece band will leave tomorrow noon for the scene of the Big Ten title struggle.

YOST POLISHES OFFENSE

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Finishing an intensive preparation of a defense for Minnesota's shattering attack, Michigan coaches turned today to their own offense.

No matter what the condition of the field may be Saturday, the Wolverines will try to work their famous forward passing game. The team has been practicing this week with gloves on their hands and may use them in the game if the weather requires. The men have become accustomed to the gloves and they offer little impediment in throwing and receiving the ball.

The starting lineup will in all probability be the same as that which played last week against Ohio State. If the field is dry and fast Hermann Weber may be used at one of the half backs, but otherwise Gregory and Gilbert will play with Molenda at full back and Friedman at quarter.

BUCK WEAVER'S SUIT DISMISSED

A suit for $20,000 in back salary by George D. (Buck) Weaver, former shortstop for the White Sox, who was one of those suspended in the 1915 world's series scandal, against the American League Baseball club was dismissed by Judge George A. Carpenter in the federal court yesterday, who ordered Weaver to pay the court costs.

GOLD COAST LINE, GHETTO BACKS RUIN HARVARD

Or, if This Isn't What's Wrong, What Is?

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Boston, Mass., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Harvard's football team which will have to meet Yale and do or be done for Saturday afternoon is suffering from a state of affairs. This state of affairs is so complex and contradictory, one man saying one thing and another man calling him a malicious slanderer for saying so, that are distinctly would be, in general terms, a sucker to try to analyze it after one glimpse.

However, one may report, without prejudice, the things that are to be heard today in Boston about the state of affairs that is afflicting the Harvard football team.

Harvard has a Beacon street line and a Salem street back field. In New York this would be the same as saying a Park avenue line and a Broadway street back field. In Chicago it would be equal to saying a North Shore line and a Maxwell street back field.

Why the State of Affairs.
In other and more numerous words, Beacon street in Boston is the same as Beacon street in the Cabots and Lowells and Saltonstalls and Salem street is the opposite part of town.

The Harvard line includes the Bradford, who for instance, who are distinctly Beacon street, and the back field includes a runty little broken field runner named Jay Zarkow, whose father is not only in trade, but in the past trade. At Millier, an enormous half back, who has done 100 yards in 9.4 seconds on the track, also is regarded as a Salem street person.

Some Lose Their Dignity.
The other man admits the soft impeachment that Harvard endows many prodigious young intellects, but insists that these youths all subscribe to the Y. M. C. A.'s "A sound mind in a healthy body." They do concern themselves with the fortunes of the football team.

Another man says Maj. Charles Daly, formerly of West Point, back field coach and theoretical subordinate of Chief Coach Bob Fisher, made the worst of a situation that was bad enough in the beginning by insisting on having a strong, heavy back field. Daly was to build a new attack for Harvard, and in the process, Glen Coody, a star tackle, was withdrawn to full back, and Capt. Dolph Cheek, a half back by trade, played at quarter back where he was very ill at ease.

Change Daily Offense.
After Princeton licked Harvard, the Daily offense was voted a bust, and Coody was returned to the line. Cheek was sent to half back but now may have to play quarter again in the Yale game owing to the injury of Jake Stafford.

Yale and Harvard and to a smaller degree, Princeton have always depended largely on the graduates of the eastern prep schools for their football teams. Yale's squad today embraces 17 players from Exeter and Andover and there are nine Exeter men in the Harvard front.

Now a Boston authority, looking into the Harvard future, discerns with alarm that 37 of 37 varsity players in the recent Exeter-Andover game have announced their betrothal to Yale. Only five are coming to Harvard.

WORRIED

Underwood & Underwood Photo. Red Grange is pensive. He's fighting mad at the rumors he's turned pro already and has signed contracts to enter various businesses, the movies, and pro football. "Nothing to it, yet," Red says. "Wait until after the Ohio game."

Grange Leads Illini Squad to Columbus

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Cheered by 3,000 students who staged a torchlight parade to the railroad station, Capt. Red Grange and 34 other members of the Illinois football squad departed for Columbus tonight to meet the Buckeyes in the final game of the season Saturday.

The Illini took their final practice this afternoon. Capt. Grange was in it from start to finish, eager to make up for his absence of two days. There is some fear that the Illinois teamwork would suffer because Red was gone two days. The return of the captain stimulated the players, who went through formations with a lot of spirit.

Coach Zuppke evidently plans to stick to the same old lineup. However, Fighting Bob Reitsch, center, and Bernis Shirey, guard, have been resting. Ernest Schultz has been broken in at guard and may get a chance against the Buckeyes.

Zupp Rewards Hard Workers.
Coach Zuppke rewarded many hard working members of the squad by taking them to Ohio, favoring men who were not taken to Pennsylvania. The squad was as follows:

Capt. Grange, Kassel, D'Ambrosio, French, Wilson, Schmitt, M. E. Smith, Bralio, Mohl, Brown, Martner, Knapp, Becker, Grabe, Nelson, McSwain, Blum, Murray, Kneib, Schultz, Picard, Reitsch, Woburn, Fisher, Green, Reid, Daugherty, Gullivan, Leonard, Hall, Stewart, Greenhouse, Hopper, Jenks, and Murray.

The Illini will arrive in Columbus at 1 o'clock tomorrow and work out in the Ohio stadium in the afternoon.

BUCKEYES BATTERED

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—With the possible exception of Rowan and all of Coach Wiley's scarlet and gray players will be able to enter the line up when Ohio State plays Illinois in the stadium here Saturday, but it will be a crippled team that the Buckeyes coach puts on the field.

His eleven first string players not one is feeling at his best, and at least six can play in the game only by virtue of grit. Karny, Marek, Rowan, Klein, Clark, and Grinn are all banged up from former contests.

In practice this afternoon Wilson sent his men through a snappy light scrimmage. They will be taken to the Hartman farm Friday night for a real City, county, and state officials will wage war on bootleggers and ticket scalpers. Reservations are known to have changed hands for as high as $125, despite the fact that the university officials have announced that standing room will be sold as long as there are cash customers. There seems little doubt that Saturday's attraction will reach 30,000, meaning a jackpot of approximately $200,000 to be divided equally between the participating universities.

WILDCATS FINISH HONING CLAWS FOR NOTRE DAME

Purple in Best Form for Season's Final.

Northwestern's football squad, striving valiantly for a place in the sun wound up preparations yesterday for tomorrow's game with Notre Dame at South Bend.

Coach Thielthwaite has his strongest combination available for the season's final. Ralph Baker, who played his first full game of the year against Purdue last week, and Tiny Lewis, hard plugging full back, are in peak form. These men will carry the brunt of the Purple's offensive. Baker's toe is expected to be a prominent factor in his team's attack. Last year he scored twice from the field before Notre Dame's Four Horsemen were able to counter with a touchdown.

Won't Claim Big Ten Title

After practice yesterday Thielthwaite said Northwestern will make no claim to the Big Ten championship, regardless of the outcome of the Michigan-Notre Dame game.

"We have won three conference games and lost one," the Purple leader told reporters. "I wish we could play again the game we lost, but we are willing to stand on our record. It's up to Chicago sports writers and the football public to decide whether we have a right to championship consideration. We shall advance no claim ourselves."

N. DAME WORKS PASSES

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Forward passing was stressed in today's practice at Notre Dame. Coach Tatum said he was well supplied with practice material. Notre Dame has not used overhead play much this year, contenting itself with line plunges and end runs, and scouts have learned little of its innovations. Rocco, may have in this department. The entire squad is in good shape, and Gold and Blue fans expect the team to show its best form of the season.

RIAL ROLFE IS RUNNER UP IN PINEHURST GOLF

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Paul F. Haddock and Jack Heath of Chicago, N. C., won the all amateur event in the annual roundsouth amateur pro matches here today with a card of 69-74-42.

G. J. Murphy of Chicago, a former runner-up with 74-71-145. A stroke behind them came Joseph E. H. (Hick) of New Haven, Conn., a prominent senior golfer, who was paired with Francis T. Kent of Brae Burn with a card of 74-72-146.

Maurice Riley of Atlantic City and John Forsman of Winged Foot had a card of 73-75-151.

The annual mid-south professional four ball matches ended in a tie here this afternoon.

Leo Diegel, paired with Johnny Farnell, came out all level with Tom Boyd and Peter O'Hara, with totals of 133 for 36 holes.

W. G. N. W. L. B. to Broadcast Big Football Battles

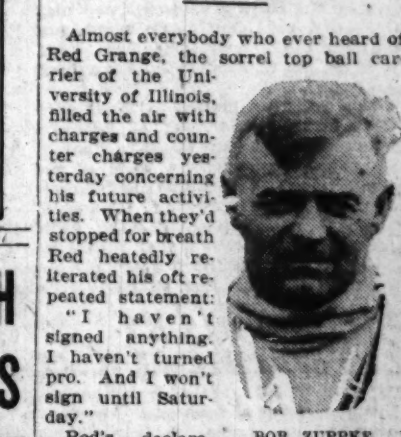

Both the Michigan-Notre Dame game and the Notre Dame-Northwestern game will be broadcast tomorrow from the scenes of the conflict.

Contrary to previous arrangements, Quin A. Ryan will describe the Michigan-Notre Dame contest from his radio booth at Ann Arbor, broadcasting over the Liberty station, WLBB. At the same time W-G-N will be broadcasting the Northwestern-Notre Dame struggle from Carter field at South Bend, with Paul G. Neal at the microphone.

All the cheering, the songs and the band music will be brought to you through the loud speaker. Station WLBB at Ann Arbor—Station W-G-N at South Bend.

HASN'T SIGNED, HE INSISTS, BUT HINTS HE WILL

Likely to Join Bears After Saturday.

Almost everybody who ever heard of Red Grange, the sorrel top ball carrier of the University of Illinois, filled the air with charges and counter charges yesterday concerning his future activities. When they'd stopped for breath Red heatedly reiterated his oft repeated statement: "I haven't signed anything. I haven't turned pro. And I won't sign until Saturday."

Red's declaration came at the close of Illinois practice before en-training for Columbus, O., where the Illini and the Buckeyes clash tomorrow. It was drawn forth as return fire to the barrage of pro charges which filled the afternoon press.

"O, I'm tired of all these statements that I've turned pro and signed a contract," Red said. "I haven't signed a scrap of paper, and I won't until the end of the Ohio game."

Swear Red Signed Contract.
Thus did Grange, perhaps the only college football player of history who has been besieged by pro football teams, Florida real estate salesman, sporting goods houses, health resorts, and what have you, answer for the most outstanding of his accusers.

The man to win this berth is E. P. Albertsen of Kokomo, Ind. Albertsen advanced front page position by sending a sworn statement to a Champaign newspaper in which he alleged that he had been hired as press agent for C. C. Pyle, theater owner, and self styled manager for Grange.

Before accepting this press agent job, Albertsen, says he was shown a contract between Pyle and Red, in which Grange contracted to let Pyle sell Grange's services to numerous enterprises, chiefly pro football teams and movie concerns.

Grange apparently thought a lot of Pyle's ability, for according to Albertsen, Grange only is to draw 45 per cent of all income in connection with his name, and the fluent Mr. Pyle and a certain Dirty Moore, former manager of the Grubbsville team in Champaign, are to divide the rest.

Likely to Join Bears.
In proof of these charges Albertsen mentioned that Grange will play with the Chicago Bears. From all surface indications this seems likely. Tatum said he was well supplied with practice material. Notre Dame has not used overhead play much this year, contenting itself with line plunges and end runs, and scouts have learned little of its innovations. Rocco, may have in this department. The entire squad is in good shape, and Gold and Blue fans expect the team to show its best form of the season.

Ranking with Mr. Albertsen on his discussion of Red Grange's services, Bard of Indianapolis. Bard is manager in the Indiana capital of the Warner Brothers Film company. He was one of the men called by Albertsen who could verify his Grange story about the Pyle contract.

Pro Football, Then Movies.
Bard told a Tribune representative that he hadn't seen the contract. But he had seen Pyle and Grange, he said. "I know Pyle too well to suppose that he would begin an extensive advertising campaign for Grange's appearance in the south unless he had a written contract with Grange," he said. "I understand that Grange is to play with the Bears and that the Bears have a game scheduled with an all-star team in the south. Grange will receive a large percentage of the gate receipts in the games with the Bears, and this, it is estimated, will total around $20,000."

"I also understand," Bard said, "that Warner Brothers Motion Picture company is planning to use Grange in a film, 'The College Widow.' He will be featured with Syd Chaplin. (The picture has been started, but was recalled to permit Grange to star in 'The College Widow'.")

Grange's Plans Made.
"So it all comes back to the Tribune's first story. Grange is planning to quit college and cash in on the publicity which he has received as one of football's heroes. He's going to start next week. He's probably going to make his first appearance with the Bears in the Thanksgiving day game with the Cardinals. And after it's Florida, and then the movies."

Red says he hasn't signed. True. But it's also likely that Press Agent Albertsen is right when he says Pyle is to be Red's manager. Pyle may have a power of attorney or he may have changed hands for as high as $125, despite the fact that the university officials have announced that standing room will be sold as long as there are cash customers. There seems little doubt that Saturday's attraction will reach 30,000, meaning a jackpot of approximately $200,000 to be divided equally between the participating universities.

Leaders Hear
for Tax Reform

BY PHILIP KINSLEY

With its equipment, resource weaknesses accurately sound
and in commercial and culture
primacy clearly fixed, Chicago
last night into a new era of momentous achievement.

Inventory week of the Chicago association of Commerce, while brought forth the most order-complete presentation of lines of crow and overlooked possibilities
with a banquet at the Hotel St.
in which the torch was passed
the older capitalists to the junior bers of the association.

Twelve Ex-Presidents Atte-Twelve past presidents of the diation were present, including
G. Shedd, the first president.
dent William R. Dawes was to-
ter. Mayor Dever was a guest honor.

Expressing appreciation for the qualities of the Dever adminis-
Mr. Dawes said that the city
ment cannot be expected to do things that are asked unless the ple are ready to pay the bill, as the time had come for a broad loy of taxation in Chicago.

The mayor said that the
home owner, paying $100 tax
his money a week for public safety, health, library, education, and that there was a case for pessimism.

Dever Cites Annual Growth

"The city revenue is the most important thing with which we deal now," he said. "We are on a new population each year 12,000. We have 300 fewer police we had four years ago. Chicago have money to go ahead. Last tax system that will give ad-revenue is what is slowing the
He defended the moral reputa-Chicago, saying that he was not troubled by temporary and ad-
mistake, and that there is no
to be disturbed.

Mr. Shedd said that there was bound to be the optimism with looked at the future, passing the hands of the younger men. The leaders, he said, must be equal task outlined by the inventor
there is material in abundance.

Urges Running Inventory

Harry A. Wheeler, former president and vice chairman of the anti-committee, said that there should immediately set up, preferably
the supplies of the Chicago Assoc-of Commerce, adequate machine
the industrial and commercial oil survey, for charting the real activities of the city and a running inventory of the new in number of commercial their annual production and give of efficiency under which are operating.

"When we realize what could
been done in the more symdevelopment of our industrial commerce and our public service adequate knowledge of their status for orderly development, realize how vital is the state of this actual and com-
survey here suggested," he said.
Prof. J. Paul Goode of the Uni-
of Chicago presented the geo-background of Chicago and
and the ideal of "making Chicago industrial capital of America."
During the day two com-
were held at which surveys direction, foods, chemicals, and were discussed. The range of presented was wide.

Wacker Urges Revenue Re-
Charles H. Wacker, chairman
Chicago Plan commission, said
most important thing to do to get money to carry out the plan.

The city's position is serious. "The present legal de-limit is $10,000,000 and still been used. Further, it may be about $5,000,000 bonds a year settlement of bonds outstanding through increase in the value of property.

Against this condition
of the board of local taxes is quoted as saying the city expected to fix the city's state of public improvements estimated at $11,000,000.

"The constitution limits the amount of a municipality to $10,000,000
of the assessed value of its property. The legal limit of
